ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP (inspired by A Song of Faith)

One: Within my body lives a tie to something greater than me.

All: Within me exists a song written by the Creator. I long to sing it.

One: We sing to God, the Spirit moving in the human heart.

All: We sing to God, the Spirit faithful, untameable.

One: We sing to God, the Holy Mystery that is Wholly Love.

All: Let us sing and praise, give and receive.

One: Let us worship God this day.

HYMN: Shall We Gather at the River VU #710

OPENING PRAYER (written by Kate Crawford)

One: Just as Jesus went down under the water to be baptized,
All: So may we immerse ourselves in worship and praise.
One: Just as Jesus did this to fulfill all righteousness,
All: So may we seek to be righteous all our days.
One: Just as the Spirit descended on Christ as a dove,
All: May we know the blessing of the Spirit's presence settling gently on us now and making our intentions holly.
Amen.

RENEWAL OF OUR BAPTISM COMMITMENT (A New Creed) VU page 918

We are not alone, we live in God's world.

We believe in God:

who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and Others by the Spirit.

We trust in God.

We are called to be the Church:

to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation,
to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.
In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

SCRIPTURE

Acts 8: 14 – 17

¹⁴ The apostles in Jerusalem heard that people in Samaria had accepted God's word. So they sent Peter and John to Samaria. ¹⁵ When they arrived there, they prayed for the new believers. They prayed that they would receive the Holy Spirit. ¹⁶ The Holy Spirit had not yet come on any of them. They had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁷ Then Peter and John placed their hands on them. And they received the Holy Spirit.

Luke 3: 15 – 17, 21 - 22

¹⁵ The people were waiting. They were expecting something. They were all wondering in their hearts if John might be the Messiah. ¹⁶ John answered them all, “I baptize you with water. But one who is more powerful than I am will come. I’m not good enough to untie the straps of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. ¹⁷ His pitchfork is in his hand to toss the straw away from his threshing floor. He will gather the wheat into his barn. But he will burn up the husks with fire that can’t be put out.” ²¹ When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as he was praying, heaven was opened. ²² The Holy Spirit came to rest on him in the form of a dove. A voice came from heaven. It said, “You are my Son, and I love you. I am very pleased with you.”

BAPTISM OF JESUS

Today we are gathered in the traditional territories of several indigenous nations with gratitude. As settlers, we take on the responsibility of learning about historic and current relationships, and our desire to engage in building right relations. We are also mindful of broken covenant, and the need to commit ourselves to deep reconciliation and healing.

The Waterford United Church is a place where everyone is welcome regardless of their ability, age, class, ethnicity, gender, race, or sexual orientation.
